

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Translation Studies Department of the Hungarian Association of Applied Linguists and Language Teachers (MANYE)

1st Translation Studies Research Conference

28 May, 2021

Zoom Meeting

The Translation Studies Department of the Hungarian Association of Applied Linguists and Language Teachers (MANYE) is launching a new conference series from 2021. The MANYE Translation Studies Conferences are scheduled for the end of May each year, with the main objective of providing an academic forum for the presentation and discussion of research results (including PhD research) within the field of translation studies in Hungary. The profile of the conference series includes academic research in the disciplines related to language mediation – translation, interpreting and terminology.

Researchers and doctoral students interested in translation studies are invited to apply for a 20-minute presentation of their research topic and results. The abstracts of approximately 300 words – plus references – can be uploaded via the link below:
